

Steve Overholt, President

Steve Overholt, who is a hospitality professional with over 30 years in the industry, was named President of Cheeseburger in Paradise in 2008 after serving two years as Vice President of Operations.

Prior to joining Cheeseburger in Paradise, Steve spent 15 years with Outback Steakhouse, a subsidiary of OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (OSI). Most recently, he was Regional Vice President for four years, managing ten Joint Venture Partners with a combined 140+ restaurants in 15 U.S. states. He was previously a Joint Venture Partner himself, where he was in charge of 21 restaurants in northern Ohio and western Pennsylvania for six years. He began his illustrious Outback Steakhouse career as a Managing Partner for five years in Shelby Township, Mich.

Steve received numerous awards while with Outback Steakhouse, including General Manager of the Year two times, Managing Partner of the Year, and awards for Operational Excellence, People Development and Superior Financial Results.

Before his time with OSI, Steve worked with Bennigan's Grill & Tavern for nine years, beginning during his college years. He achieved a great deal of success with the company, culminating with the position of General Manager and Area Associate responsible for six restaurants in three states. Prior to joining Bennigan's Grill & Tavern, his first job in the industry at the young age of 13 as a dishwasher led to several food service positions at Walt Disney Company in Florida, which initiated his lifelong love for hospitality.

Steve holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Hotel Restaurant Administration from Florida State University. He has been married to Susan for over 23 years and has a daughter, Amanda and a son, Steven Jr.
